

Director of Central Intelligence
Intelligence Research and Development Council
Washington, D.C. 20505

30 APR 1979

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Commendation

STAT  officially concludes his tenure as Executive Director of the Intelligence Research and Development Council at the end of this month and will return to the National Security Agency.

It is therefore appropriate that I confirm those informal comments I made to the Council at the April 12, 1979, meeting in appreciation of his Council efforts and in recognition of these accomplishments over the past two years.

I would specifically cite the in-depth review of the total U.S. Intelligence R&D investment analysis which  has gotten off to a good start. This review will serve as a monument to  Council service.

STAT
STAT I'm sure you join with me in wishing  every success in his new position as Deputy Director of R-9, NSA.
